

Asian American and Native American Pacific Islander Serving Institutions designations are schools where at least 10% of undergraduate students identify as Asian American, Native Hawaiian, or Pacific Islander (AANHPI).

AANAPISIs can benefit students through

- Support services
- Summer bridge programs
- Increased access to leadership development
- First-year experience programs
- Student learning communities
- Financial aid supports
- Mentorship opportunities
- Culturally competent advising

Specific Examples of Provided Support

- Asian American Studies or Pacific Islander-focused courses
- AANHPI student organizations
- Cultural Celebrations and heritage events
- Mentorship Groups
- Cultural Centers

There are over 100 AANAPISIs across 27 states and territories, and nearly 1 in 3 AANAPISIs college students attends one.
